Unique Fire Stop Products, Inc.

---

Dear Mike,

I am pleased to inform you that Unique Fire Stop Products, Inc.'s ("UFSP") Automotive FireStopper sleeve device has been approved for use in NASCAR competition in all series. The FireStopper device will not be specifically mentioned in the NASCAR Rule Book, although competitors may utilize FireStopper devices without penalty or violation of the NASCAR Rules.

Please note that no use of the NASCAR trademarks may be used in any advertising, sale, and/or promotion of the approved device, except that the device has been "approved for use in NASCAR competition." NASCAR is not in any way a guarantor of the quality of any product produced by UFSP. NASCAR does not represent, state, or otherwise guarantee that UFSP will make any sales of the FireStopper device or otherwise make any money pursuant to this approval. UFSP shall neither state nor imply, directly or indirectly, that UFSP's products or services are supported, endorsed or sponsored by NASCAR.

In the event that UFSP materially modifies or changes the quality or performance of the FireStopper device, UFSP must resubmit the device for NASCAR's prior approval. NASCAR reserves the right to revoke approval for the FireStopper device upon notice to UFSP.

Best regards,
