"We've established a great relationship with MAHLE's sales and engineering team. We are very satisfied with the performance, longevity, and durability of the product and even worked with them developing ring packages. It's been a win/win relationship all the way around and one we will continue for years to come."

DON'T GET FOOL INJECTED

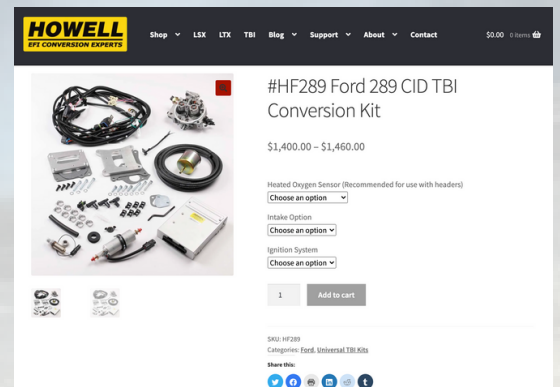

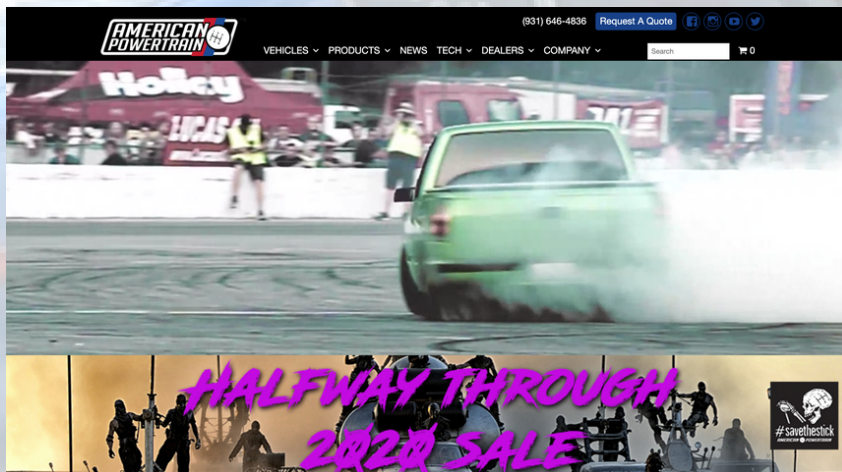

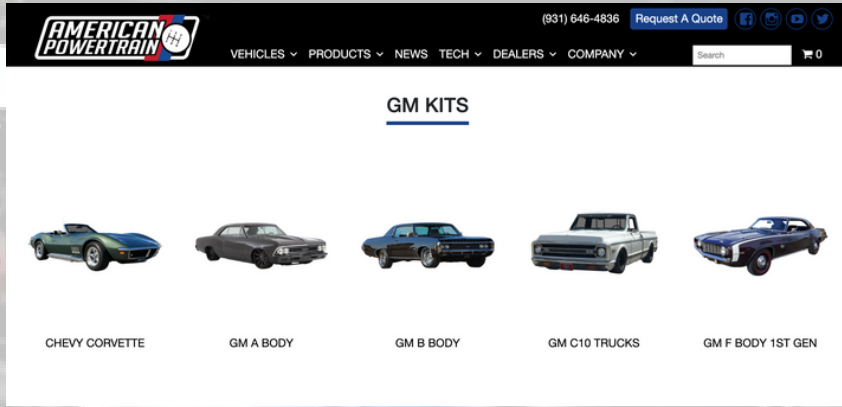

You get what you pay for and pay for what you don't. Unlike most competitors, a Howell kit includes everything you need – short of an air cleaner. Before you invest in an EFI or TBI kit that looks promising, call Howell first...
